Ken Bugul

Education in Zion Exhibit, JFSB, BYU
